Allowance

Applicants' response to the last Office Action, filed on March 3rd, 2009 has been entered and made of record.

Response to Amendment

1. The amendment to claims 31 and 34 has successfully overcome the previously presented 35 USC 101 rejection of claims 31-38 by amending to include devices utilized to perform the described method steps.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 23, 25-31, and 33-38 are allowed.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The amendment received on 03/03/2009 has incorporated previously objected to allowable subject matter into the independent claims, and the amendment of claims (as indicated above) 31 and 34 has overcome the previously presented 35 USC 101 rejection of claim 31 and its dependents. The amendment to claims 31 and 34 included particular "units" that are utilized to perform the described method steps. Based on the applicant's presented disclosure (refer to US PG-Pub 2006/0039631 for corresponding paragraphs), the examiner has construed that the units refer to a combination of hardware and software to implement the described method. The applicant's disclosure in figure 2 and paragraphs 0017 and 0131-0132 generically teach and refer to terms such as device, de-interlacing apparatus, de-interlacing engine, and mechanism for performing the method, but does not give particular structure. However, as has been evidenced by the prior art section (0004-0008) the de-interlacing of video signals has been implemented in a hardware device for the purpose of displaying the processed video signals. Furthermore, based upon the above discussion the “units” referred to in the device claims 23 and 26 are also construed to be a combination of hardware and software.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled “Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance.”
